At the afternoon session of the Episcopal con ention of the diocese of Maryland yesterday Or. T. S. Bacon of Frederick county submitted resolution which stated that the peace and aith of Christians everywhere is much distrines as to the Holy Scriptures, and that the council here assembled assures all its people that no recent study or reasoning of men has changed or can change the ancient catholic truth that all the Holy Bible is the word of God; at it contains no faise history or mythology,

A lengthy discussion seemed imminent, but Bishop Paret avoided it by asking unanimous consent that a resolution should be submitted by the chair. This was granted, and his resolution stated that as the doctrines and faith of the church are fully set forth in its standards and teachings, it would be undesirable because of lack of time to discuss them at this time, and that Dr. Bacon's resolution be indefinitely postponed. This was adopted with but one dissenting voice, that of Dr. Bacon. boned. This was adopted with but one dissenting voice, that of Dr. Bacon.

Howard county, Md. It expressed regret for death of Rev. Dr. Thomas Stevenson, a other for $300. One death occurred during the year, making the number of recipients at the present time nine. The receipts for the fund during the year were as follows: From parishes and congregations, $2,718.40; from trustees of church charities, $752.05; interest, $55.60; balance from last year, $2,059.63; total receipts, $5,585.68. The disbursements were: To beneficiaries, $3,343.33; expenses, $2.20; balance on hand, $2,240.

WHERE MONEY WAS GIVEN.

Appropriations were made by the committee at its June meeting to fifty-two different places, located as follows: Ten in the convocation of Annapolis, twelve in that of Baltimore, eleven in the Cumberland convocation and nineteen in the convocation of Washington. The total appropriations amounted to $14,275. The receipts for this branch of the work were: From parishes and congregations, $10,290.51; on account of previous year, $1,306.37; from trustees of church charities, $215.37; balance on hand, $384.36; from other sources, $204.49; total, $12,401. The committee disbursed in salaries $11,254.96 and in expenses $100.58. There were fifty-three parishes that had been assessed $1,587 that contributed nothing, and forty-nine parishes delinquent in part, making a total of $1,740.94 that was not paid into the general missionary fund.

a total of $1.740.94 that was not paid into the general missionary fund.

The report concludes with several resolutions, which were discussed at length and finally adopted. The first of these was that $12,000 be appropriated for pastoral aid. This was amended by Bishop Paret so as to make the appropriation $13,000. The amendment was accepted without opposition.

EACH PARISH MUST DO ITS DUTY. The second resolution was to the effect that ng that portion of the appropriation asraising that portion of the appropriation as-signed to it. Rev. Dr. Steele and others op-posed this method of exacting money, while Dr. McKim and Dr. Gambrall favored its adoption. It was finally carried, with the understanding that if any parish should find itself unable to pay its apportionment the sum should be reduced. Two other recom-mendations of an unimportant character were also adouted.

instruction called attention to the fact that its work was seriously impeded by a lack of funds. It was therefore agreed to appropriate $1,000 for the committee's use.

The following committees were appointed by Bishop Paret: To confer with a like committee from the diocese of Easton regarding the relations of rectors and vestries. Bishop Paret, Rev. A. C. Powell, Mr. C. M. Matthews and Mr. J. Wirt Randall; on the appointment of a diocesan secretary, Rev. Dr. McKim, Rev. Dr. Eccleston, Mr. H. E. Pellew, Thomas Armstrong and Dr. Robert Atkinson.

PHILADELPHIA, 11: WASHINGTON, O. There was a noticeable improvement in the Phillies' work yesterday over that of the previous day, and they walked into Washington with confidence, beating them by a score of 11 to 0. Notwithstanding the one-sidedness of the score and the long lead the Phillies early in the game took, it was interesting all the way through, being punctuated with some good hard hitting and clever bits of fielding. If the Phillies laid down before Knell's left-hand surves on Tuesday, those of both Killen and Kilroy had no terrors for them, for they jumped on Killen at the start, and in two innings drove him out of the game. ment when Windle entered and that he began talking with her shortly before the train reached Worksop. She answered only in monosyllables at first and then not at all.

At first Windle denied Miss Cordock's accusations and declared that she "was trying Amy Faulkner's game." Then he refused to say anything until he could see a lawyer. Subsequently he was straigned and remanded. He is now in the East Retford jail.

Miss Cordock is hysterical and showed symptoms of breaking down several times during her recital. She is now under medical treatment and her physician says will be able to appear against Windle in court within three or four days probably. She is described as a handsome blonde girl of medium height. The excitement in East Retford on account of the case is high, and when Windle was taken to jail a crowd of men and boys pressed close to the policemen and threatened to take him away and drag him through the streets.

But it will be some years before a cathedral at all approaching completeness can be erected and by that time, I am confident, the site which has been accepted will be in a central point for the city and the District and easily and quickly accessible from any point.

THE SITE CONFIRMED. The competent and careful committee of business men with whom I took counsel were unanimous in their choice and approval, and the whole matter has since been carefully reconsidered in the light of counter suggestions, with the result of unhesitating confirmation of the first decision. At the present stage of the enterprise it calls for no special action on the part of the convention. The formulation of plans for organizing, for governing, for making and the preparing of definite plans for building must rest until the time when we may have assurance of sufficient.

Few such notable companies have assembled in Philadelphia as that which last night welcomed home Charles Emory Smith after his absence of two years as minister to Russia, with a banquet at the Believue. Every interest of Philadelphia had eminently fit representatives—bench and bar, manufacturers and commerce, trunk line and street railreads, politics and journalists. It was a reunion of fellow citizens of whom not only the guest of the evening, but Philadelphia, might well be proud. The large banqueting room presented a most attractive scene when the guests were all seated, shortly after 7 o'clock. The menu was thoroughly enjoyed and for nearly two hours bright chatter and hearty laughter accompanied the music of the silver and china.

At 9 o'clock Chairman MacVeagh in a neat speech, which was frequently applauded, introduced Charles Emory Smith, who made the speech of the evening. He was followed by
